

Congratulations to District Champion Owls

Hunters welcomed to area

Hundreds of requests have poured into the Hondo Chamber of Commerce office by telephone and letter this year. All had one thing in common: "We want a hunting lease..."

And landowners have responded. Acreage approaching two-thirds of the County is under lease to deer hunters this season... over 750,000 acres in all.

The cost of leasing has increased dramatically in the past few years, also. Revenues from hunting leases is expected to average about $3 per acre, or a total economic impact in the County of $2,250,000.

Hunters should find their leases unusually productive this season.

Despite a severe winter which caused the fawn crop for this spring to be a small one, those deer which are of shooting size have been blessed with a mild spring and summer, and the most rainfall in many years.

Game Warden August Timmerman, who has spent 29 years in Medina and surrounding counties and has observed hunting conditions year in and year out, says "It may be even a little harder to hunt this fall, due to the heavy vegetation in the pastures. A deer could be a few feet away and still be invisible in the thick brush."

Still, hunters are expected to spy enough bucks and does to make this year's harvest one of the best in recent years.

A new feature in Medina County hunting in 1973 is the County-imposed restrictions against shooting spike bucks.

The County Commissioners Court has voted to make it illegal to shoot spike bucks in this county," Timmerman reports.

"By spike buck, of course, they mean a buck with hardened antlers that protrude through the skin, but are not forked or pronged."

Three deer can be legally bagged by each hunter, and no more than two of those can be bucks.

Turkey season also opens Saturday along with the deer season, and it will run concurrently with the deer period, ending on January 1.

Though many young turkeys have been spotted earlier, especially in the eastern portion of the county, they have thinned out, possibly moving north as the autumn progresses.

Breakfast to kick off drive

Manana (Friday) is the day for teams of interested people to work for Hondo!

Interest and enthusiasm is expected to run high at the annual Kickoff Breakfast for the Hondo

Chamber of Commerce membership drive as an estimated 35 persons gather at the New Frontier Restaurant to participate in the one-day event.

"After a good breakfast," said president Burnis Lawrence, "those present will divide into teams and scatter throughout the city with cards of businesses and individuals who will be asked to join the Chamber of commerce effort to build Hondo."

As teams make a sale they will report it to Radio Station KRME and a current status will be kept on which team is reaching the most members. "This worked beautifully last year," Lawrence said, "and we believe this year will be no exception."

As of Tuesday at 4 p.m. 113 memberships had been returned to the Chamber office. Thus the membership had reached the 50 percent mark of the 225 listed for 1973.

"We know we can go over 225," Lawrence said. "And we believe that the Hondo businessmen realize that to do a good job we must have money, so they will give serious consideration to increasing their dues. We can have a great year in 1974 under Bruce Foster and the directors."

Poerner to tell decision Nov. 21

The question of whether Rep. John Poerner will run for the Congressional seat vacated by Congressman O. C. Fisher has caused much speculation in state press over the past few months, but it will be resolved next week.

Rep. Poerner this week authorized the Anvil Herald exclusively to say that he "will make an announcement of his plans on Wednesday, November 21."

Poerner said, "I have given much thought to the possibility of making a race for the Congressional seat now held by Congressman Fisher, who has announced he will not seek re-election. Those thoughts and all the study that has gone into the possibility of such a race will culminate with my decision to be announced on the 21st."

The ring will have to be a big one if all the hats that have been mentioned are thrown in to the political race. State Senator Nelson Wolf of San Antonio announced Tuesday he is a candidate. This is a change from his stand some two months ago when he assured friends he had no intentions of running. Other possibilities include: Robert Krueger of New Braunfels, State Senator Glenn Kothmann of San Antonio and several Republicans.

SMILING INVITATION

There's nothing like a pretty woman to enhance an invitation. And when we began looking for someone to wear this ribbon, we had only to look in our bookkeeping department and find Mrs. Jay [Claudia] Finger. She turned on this pretty smile and that brightened up the invitation on the ribbon "Visit God's Country, Hondo, Texas." This invitation will be worn by those fun-loving people going on the bus to support our Champion Corn Shuckers in Houston December 1 and 2. The ribbons will be returned to the Chamber of Commerce office where they will be available for any occasion by residents.

Rodent control planned

A rodent control program will be conducted in the City of Hondo during the first week of December by Santiago Machuca from the Texas Rodent Control Service who will work closely with the City on the program.

Bait to be purchased by the City will be placed in all homes needing the service and will be made available during the campaign to anyone having rat problems.

When used properly, the anti-coagulant bait is harmless to children and pets and has proven very effective in controlling rats and mice in previous campaigns.

Machuca says that the over abundant rodent population is due mainly to the large amount of rainfall this year and the arrival of cold weather. "To help control the problem," he says, "Everyone is urged to clean their premises of rubbish, discarded materials, which might harbor rats or mice."

Community Thanksgiving services set November 21

Community Thanksgiving Services will be held in Hondo, the Anvil Herald learned late Wednesday morning.

Services are planned for 7 p.m. Wednesday, November 21, at the First Baptist Church with the Rev. George Steubben, pastor of St. John's Catholic Church, delivering the message.

Other ministers also will participate in the services and the special music. The public is invited.

Council approves United Gas rate adjustment

Approval of a 50 cents per month per customer rate adjustment for United Gas was approved Tuesday night by the Hondo City Council.

The rate, which Manager David McGraw says amounts to only 1 2/3 cents per day for each customer, will go into effect immediately.

McGraw said, "As you can readily see, the adjustment is small and will produce only that additional revenue that is required to keep the company even with its cost of increases in salaries and wages since our last adjustment."

"My company is caught up in the same inflationary trend affecting all individuals and businesses, and our costs have advanced much faster than could be offset by improved operating efficiencies. Our principal increases in costs have, of course, been the increases in wages and salaries paid our employees, but in addition to that, postage, taxes, insurance, materials and all other costs have increased substantially."

In other action, the Council opened bids for a sprinkler system for the Hondo Golf Course as well as for a ditching machine and a truck and bed. No bids were awarded, but a special meeting has been set for Tuesday, November 20,

Open House slated December 8

The date for the big Open House at the Del Rio Flying Service and Air Force Flight Screening program at Hondo Airbase has been officially set for Saturday, December 8.

Tentative time span in which the public will be invited to come out and view the program is 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on that date. "We will make a more definite answer on the time later," officials said.

The Air Force people and the civilian personnel of Del Rio Flying Service are working hand-in-hand to make this an interesting and informative Open House for residents of Hondo and the area.

Coordinating the event are Capt. Fred Hass of the Air Force and Jess Sadler and George Caldwell who have been named by General Superintendent Bruce Baize to represent Del Rio Flying Service.

"Details on exactly how we are going to direct the public," Sadler pointed out, "are still tentative. But we probably will give them a guided tour of the hangar, the flightline and the other facilities."

Capt. Hass said he hopes to have static displays of T-41 aircraft (the plane used in training the young officers-to-be of the Air Force), T-37, T-38 and "possibly a C-130 working with the 433rd Tactical Airlift Wing (the Alamo Reserve Wing) at Kelly AFB."

Other possible attractions will include a demonstration by the Air Force Security Dog Team and a radio control model demonstration.

Del Rio Flying Service is the contractor for the Air Force Flight Screening Program which has an average student output of some 90 students every three weeks. Then the Security Assistance Training Program, worked in conjunction with the other program, puts through about 40 allied students every five weeks. These students come from Vietnam, Bolivia, Iran and Guatemala.

This is all accomplished with 79 of the T-41 aircraft and approximately 100 personnel total.

HAVE YOU TRIED TO BUY IN HONDO?

THE QUESTION... on this sign is one which all Hondo residents should ponder if they wish their town to prosper and remain "the fine little city they want it to be." It is a good question and one the Hondo Chamber of Commerce thought worthwhile to keep in front of the public so if they were headed east toward the big city it might make them stop and think. Much cooperation went into getting the sign into place on Rep. John Poerner's property just east of Hondo. Franklin Wiemers, a director, was in charge of the sign and he asked Posse Parsons of the City of Hondo to build it. Then Chuck Hackebell, Michael Hackbeil, Chris Heyen and Burnis Lawrence painted the white background, and Mrs. Betty Haile did the lettering. Then came the task of getting it up and Gene Harrison of the City Electric System provided the poles and District Manager George Schmidt sent a crew of Medina Electric Cooperative men out and set the poles and then mounted the sign. So now it's there for all to see and the Chamber hopes they will heed its question. "Try to buy it at home before jumping in the car and whizzing to the big city. It'll help everyone in Hondo, including yourself." [Photo by Joe Fohn.]

CONGRATULATIONS

... certainly are in order to Coach James Bohls, his staff and the Hondo Owl Football Team for winning another District Championship.

In grabbing the crown, the Owls had to come back with some outstanding playing. They proved their character by not giving up after a couple of disastrous games and came on to prove they had "the stuff inside that it takes to be champions."

We would like to add our highest praise to the Owls and Coach Bohls and say "we hope you can go all the way."

TRUE AMERICANISM

... seems to be on the verge of extinction... or near oblivion to say the least.

We are all content to sit back and snipe at everything anyone tries to do. We take great pride in placing the blame for everything that happens on the shoulders of someone else, usually political figures. Seldom do we stand up and look someone in the eye and say, regardless of the consequences, "I made that mistake!" or "Yes I am responsible for that decision."

Long ago we each became instant experts on all subjects no matter how complex, intricate or delicate they tend to be.

We divide ourselves by insisting we are Anglo, Mexican American, Black, Jews, Indians, Chinese, Polish, Irish. We bring further division by declaring we are Baptist, Methodist, Catholic and dozens of other religious beliefs. We add to the gap by being Democrats, Republicans, La Raza Unida, American Party and others. Certainly, we are all of these and take pride in being so.

We put all this first and never say, "First, I am an American. I am proud of the country in which I was born and want to do what is right to preserve our heritage. Therefore, when I get through being that important personage--an American--I will take care of all the other desires I have."

We practically alienate ourselves from society by caring for "old number one self" only.

Our purpose in life seems to have changed from a desire to help our community, our state, our nation to the dedicated goal of doing only that which will benefit us personally--and even then if the effort is too great we are prone to find and excuse to not do it.

To Be Tested

I feel the true character of the American public is going to be tested within the next two years, perhaps within the next few months.

Like many others, I personally cannot convince myself that the energy crisis is for real. However, whether I am right or wrong, it is beginning to look like we will face a possible shortage of heat this winter.

So, here comes my question: Are we all--and I mean every man, woman and child, going to face up to the task of doing without? Will we all drive 50 or 60--or whatever speed called for--to conserve gasoline?

The next time you drive on the highway force yourself to drive 50. Once you get over the "creeping along" feeling and become satisfied with yourself that you are "helping out", then take notice at all the cars that go by so fast they almost "suck you up their exhaust pipe".

And how does that make you feel?

But before you get excited about "that other guy" not giving his all as you are doing, stop and consider the fact this isn't uncommon in our country.

For years I have made my family upset by growling and grumbling if they happened to forget and throw something out the car window as we are driving. I have preached "clean up after

Letters from the mailbox

Dear Mr. Lawrence.

What has happened to the good old Hondo spirit? It is hard for me, as a former student and band member, to believe that the band members are frowned upon when they sing 'For Hondo's Honor and Glory' after the defeat of a district foe.

Discipline has done much for the band but it seems too much discipline could make being in the band more of a chore than a pleasure.

Mr. Harrell will say the band is not a pep squad—but how can anyone take away the spirit and enthusiasm that has possessed Hondo band students for years. Yelling on a band bus could be dangerous, but it seems the bus driver knows how much noise he or she can contend with and when the bus driver gives permission for moderate yelling why should it be taken away by someone who is not driving?

I'm fond of the band and have always had much respect for the Harrells, but things sure have gotten tougher since I left, and I'm one of those students who knew nothing but AI.

What is going to happen to the Hondo Owls when everyone loses their spirit?

How long can they be known as the Big Blue Band from Owl Land when they give up caring? How much longer can the band and football team work for each other when they are not supporting one another?

A concerned ex-student and band member—Isabell Clayton

[Editor's Note: You have the right to your opinion, but I have always felt that if one wants to be the best, then one has to work hard. Discipline is a must if a large group is to perform well enough to be the best. As for the yelling

HHS Counselor quizzes Frosh

Recently, Hondo High School Counselor Richard Lynch handed around a questionnaire among the Freshman class with a single question: "As a Freshman, what do you really need to know when you come in to the High School?"

The responses were surprising in some ways, predictable in others, and downright outrageous in still others.

Most frequent responses, for example, included such serious subjects as the location of the classrooms, acting mature as new High School students, and learning the dress codes. But, on the other hand, one of the top five responses was "finding where the restrooms are". Many of the students apparently worry about their status as Freshmen. One response described the process of "realizing you are not No. 1, like in the eighth grade."

Many of the students apparently worry about

And, others noted "not being a smart alec," "accepting the word 'fish' "staying friendly when they call you 'fish' " (a politician-to-be?); and philosophically to "know that everyone makes fun of the Freshmen." One astute High School observer makes a note to "Look out for Seniors."

Studying seems to take a jump in importance with graduation to High School. "Studying harder," "Learning how to study," "Learning how to take notes," and "What do the teachers expect?" all had their places in the answer column.

Other responses reflected special interests and problems.

One respondent, obviously a resigned Ten O'clock Scholar, noted that his biggest adjustment was finding "Where to get a tardy slip."

Another, in the tradition of other Don Juans, wants to know "How to talk to beautiful girls."

One insecure type wants to "Find someone who's been here a year."

A fast learner has decided that the major requirement is "To learn to keep your mouth shut."

But the star of the whole group, the one who best grasped the purpose of the questionnaire (or so he thought), is the youth who told the counselor that the major objective is "Know what a Counselor is."

Chamber Corner

By Lillian Porter,
Exec. Secretary

Alfred B. Wiemers gave us a deer leasing donation; and George A. Koch made a donation for 1974.

Here is a dreamer!

"Please send me a list of hunting guides in the Hondo area. Are there any farmers in your area that would allow hunters to hunt for free on their land? Ronald Criswell, Austin."

It pays off to be nice!

"Dear Mrs. Porter:

"I am the person that called you some time ago about the weather situation. Thanks for your help. We have a small, but nice place, between Tarpley and Utopia on the head of the Hondo Creek. We frequently stop in Hondo for supplies, etc., and appreciate the friendly folks there to trade with."

"It is too late this year, but next season I am looking for a small deer lease between Hondo and Tarpley for about 3 to 5 guns. Please be on the lookout or give me some information."

"I have been city manager of McAllen 27 years, so will soon be spending more time up there. We love the Hill Country. Sincerely, Bill Schupp, City Manager, McAllen."

Direct and to the point: "Please send information of interest, also map of Hondo, to John Charles in Corpus Christi."

And then we receive letters such as this one:

"Dear Madam: "I should be very grateful if my request for some of your free books, including New Testament, and other literature, tracts, will meet your consideration."

"It is very unfortunate that I cannot afford to by a new Testament at present, but my appeal to you can fetch me one I am sure."

Yet, what happens? After all their dedication to being clean, they witness day after day some careless clunk throw beer cans, sometimes by the sackful, anywhere he or she takes a notion to throw them—and "to heck with keeping America clean."

Saturday, I went to the school to pick up my horn-tooting freshman and had to wait for her to finish cleaning up. As I was waiting I saw at least four instances of students on buses and in cars throw out drink cups, gum wrappers or what-have-you.

So to bring the point back around to the energy crisis: it doesn't matter how conscientious many of us will be to help our country in a time of need, there will be many who will refuse to join in the fight.

They will be doing just what "number one" wants to do and America can go to blazes.

And I sincerely feel that it is that very attitude, which has become more prevalent within the last 10 years, that can and might lead to the downfall of this great country of ours.

I would like to see a reversal in this trend. I would like to see all of us begin to think Country first and self last. That is the only way we can every get our nation back on the road to "true American greatness."

JOHN SCHUBERT

. . . had his H&R Block tax office ransacked over the weekend, but he wants to assure everyone that their tax records are in good shape. "I've received many calls from people," Schubert said. "But no records were destroyed. We have all five years of our records intact."

It seems that after going to all the trouble of breaking into the office, the culprits took only one typewriter.

APPEALS, APPEALS, APPEALS

Wild Game Dinner

General Chairman Bruce Foster makes another appeal to hunters and fishermen for any type of game—deer, armadillo, fish, birds, rattlesnake, javelina. "We need all the meat we can get for this big event of the year," Foster said.

Larry Oefinger, who is handling game intake, appeals for help to prepare the meat that will be brought in. "I've got my hands full," he says.

Chamber Banquet Tickets

Only two more weeks remain until the annual Hondo Chamber of Commerce banquet [set this year on December 3], and tickets are going at a good pace. Those who have not purchased theirs yet are urged to do so.

"We are urging businessmen to bring some of their employees," a Chamber official said. "We have a fine speaker in Bob Murphey of Nacogdoches, and an excellent program in presenting the Outstanding Citizen and Outstanding Farmer/Rancher. Plus of course an excellent turkey and dressing meal prepared just right by Mrs. Elmer Nietenhoefer and her expert staff at McDowell School cafeteria."

X-Ray Unit Here

Don't forget the Mobile X-Ray unit of the American Lung Association—Alamo Area will be in Hondo today [Thursday]. It will be stationed at the City Hall and Chairman Kenneth Flory urges everyone 15 years or older to "come by and get a chest x-ray for only $1."

Blood Donation Drive

It was decided at a Monday night meeting that a Blood Donation Drive, supervised by Blood Services of San Antonio, will be held in Hondo on December 17 and 18. The two day drive will have a minimum goal of 200 pints of blood. A concerted publicity campaign will be launched on the drive very soon.

Empty Stocking Fund

This worthwhile annual drive again is seeking contributions for good cause. This year the drive will concentrate on gifts for the aged, according to Mary Ruth Cameron, who has spearheaded the drive for many years.

Owl Band earns Division I

The Hondo High School Band received their fourth consecutive First Division Rating in Marching last Saturday at the Region XI, U.I.L. Marching Contest held in Hondo.

Some random comments from the judges were as follows:

Ray Bostic — "Your outstanding performance reflects the pride, spirit and dignity of a Band deserving the highest rating. My congratulations to all the Band and your outstanding Director."

Maddie Smith — "With-out a question one of the finest AA Bands around."

Other Bands receiving a First Division rating were: Charlotte in Class B, Comfort and Bandera in Class A, Pearsall and Devine in Class AA and Uvalde, Kerrville and Fredericksburg in Class AAA.

Sales tax hits new high

Business is bound to have been good in Hondo during April, May, and June of this year. Or at least that's what the latest sales tax check for $18,593.35 would indicate.

The check compared to last year's same period total of $14,762.99 would indicate sales were up in 1973, for it takes excellent sales to boost the 1 cent sales take total up by more than $3,000.

A Special Thanksgiving

for Coy E. Berry's Life

This Thanksgiving holds an added significance for us. We thank God for Bubba's life—a devoted son, father, brother, grandson, nephew, cousin and friend of many.

We are thankful and it is a consolation to know that others care with deepest sympathy through prayers, calls, cards, beautiful flowers, food and memorials to First Methodist Church for church chimes, parlor fund and landscape fund; Frio Hospital; Medina Memorial Hospital; The Austin State School; The Medina County Association for Exceptional Children; West Texas Rehabilitation Center; Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children; Cal Farley's Boys Ranch; Frio Public Library. . . A constant tribute to the memory of the one so honored and goes on in the lives of others.

We thank you God for a service of worship of words and music that gave us strength. Frequently when we need help we try to depend on human powers—which are quickly exhausted.

When we feel we cannot go on we simply trust in God as our sustainer—with God's help and our many friends we receive strength and peace and we can face with confidence the things we do not understand—even death.

We thank you God for friends. . . To each of them our sincere thanks and our warmest wishes for a joyous family Thanksgiving.

Sister Cecilia Jasik honored

A library fund has been established at St. Albert's Hall in Boerne in honor of Sister M. Cecilia Jasik, O.S.B., who has been seriously ill since early October. There have been about 20 contributors to the fund including Mrs. Ferdie Batot of Hondo, who is Sister Cecilia's younger sister.

Sister Cecilia has taught and administered in Benedictine-staffed schools of the archdiocese for 24 years. She developed the non-graded program at Holy Spirit School in San Antonio. It was subsequently named a demonstration school in the network of model institutions listed by the Texas Education Agency this term.

This little item is "personal" to KAY ROSSANN WENTZ, whose name I changed to "Laura" a few weeks ago. I realized what I had done minutes after I had dropped the Hondo mail in the mail box. [I can think backwards.]

What's in a name? Kay, by any other name, is still as sweet and I'm sure she will make a good president for the Pi Di Ki Ya Camp Fire Group.

As for me, I'd better get back to my book "for the Careful Writer, the title of which is "Miss Thistlebottom's Hobgoblins."

It quotes Chaucer [with whom I had a go-round in high school days]: "Repreve he dredeth never a del / Who that beset his wordis wel."

Chaucer didn't make it as far as the old reliable Blue Back Speller.

Competition for the state crown in the Texas Farm Bureau Queen contest [Dec. 3 at Abilene] will be keen. I have received a picture and a list of the commendable qualifications of the Jackson County FB queen who will represent District 12. She is a comely lass and talented.

But, my heart still belongs to Medina County so, guess where my vote would go if I had one coming . . . or is it "going"?

I have been enjoying an exchange of correspondence with my grandnephew, ROBERT D. RIFF [son of the M. D. Riffs]. Bob is on navy duty in Alaska and the dateline on a recent letter reads, "ADAK . . . too far for comfort", he is a member of the Flying Club and had experienced the thrill of piloting a plane "for the first time in my whole life, invigorating to say the least."

Now . . . Mr. and Mrs. ROBERT L. MUMME have shared five dozen assorted years of togetherness. And, I feel sure they will agree that they were "assorted", with the happy years, the good years, making up for any that might have had more downs than ups.

In the years I have known them I was always greeted by a smile -- the kind of "smiles that make you happy", as the song describes one special variety. Keep smiling, friends!

Even before I read the cutlines that described a 93rd birthday party, I recognized the picture of Mrs. MINNIE SCHLENTZ POEHLER.

Her late husband was one of the Anvil Herald's most faithful correspondents in the early days of its history when he always added a touch of humor to his weekly reports. It was my pleasure to spend an afternoon in their home years ago and the visit resulted in a return of occasional columns from Mr. Poehler.

RYAN JEFFREY ROTHE, who discovered Hondo and D'Hanis by way of San Antonio, came well equipped with direct ancestors.

Four grandparents and five great-grandparents will have to share the credit for "which side he takes after."

Land Sakes! If the ANVIL Office Equipment and Office Supplies departments haven't up and moved to a new location. The new quarters will be up-town and probably mighty purty.

But all this can't possibly pose the challenge the old days now beyond recall did when whatever you wanted had to be located wherever it was at.

Honestly, it wasn't really like that. Everybody had a lot of fun, nobody got mad [or stayed mad very long] at anybody else and WE thought WE each did a day's work that entitled us to a night's repose, even without whatever you're supposed to take if you're addicted to TV commercials.

I'll look forward to visiting the new spread next time I'm in town.

Aided and abetted by VFW Post 6290, Mayor Price K. Johnson of Refugio, Texas, has declared and proclaimed that, henceforth, in that town, "November 11 will be observed as Veteran's Day . . . to be observed . . . with a feeling of deep patriotism and love of our country in remembrance of our departed Comrades."

Said the news story, "Whether the mayor's proclamation will bring a response from Washington remains to be seen."

At this point in time, Washington's "remains" are being seen world-wide.

W H. Jasik nominated for award

The late W. H. Jasik has been nominated from Saint Matthew's parish to receive the Archbishop Furey Award for 1973. This award is given each year to persons throughout the San Antonio Archdiocese who have rendered notable service in their parish.

Jasik was a well-known and well-liked member of Jourdan's Catholic Church, who served as an inspiration to all by his participation in the spiritual life of the parish. He was always actively concerned in making the parish picnic a success through his help and his large donations each year.

He was also a generous benefactor to many diverse Catholic charities, believing strongly in sharing his material blessings with others.

Jasik was especially well-loved by the Benedictine Sisters of Boerne, having a daughter, Sister Cecelia, as a member of the congregation. He also was always very generous to the Sisters as well as to his other 4 children, Mrs. Frances Batot of Hondo, being his youngest child. Jasik passed away in June.

The award will be made posthumously to his widow, Mrs. Angela Jasik of Jourdan.

SS News

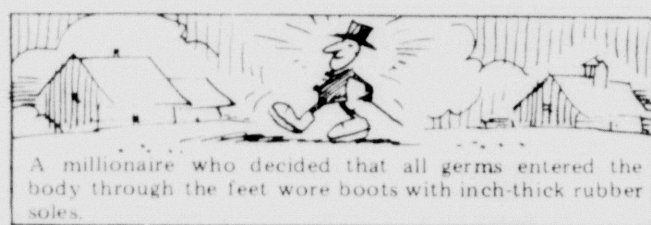

"Based on recent telephone calls and visits to the office, we have found that there is a lot of confusion about the deductibles under the two parts of Medicare," Gilbert G. Gonzales, social security District Manager, stated today. "The two parts of Medicare are entirely separate. It is almost like having two separate insurance policies. Each part has a deductible which must be met before benefits from that part may be made."

"Under Part A, the hospital insurance portion of Medicare, there is a deductible of $72 for each benefit period. A person may have more than one benefit period during a calendar year, which means he may be required to pay the $72 deductible more than once during the year. A new benefit period usually begins when more than 60 days expire between stays in a hospital.

"Under Part B, the medical insurance portion of Medicare, there is now a deductible of $60 for each calendar year. Therefore, as soon as a Medicare beneficiary's medical expenses go over $60 for a calendar year this part of Medicare will pay 80 percent of the allowed charges for doctor's and other covered services for the remainder of the year. Any part of this deductible that is met in the last three months of a year may be carried forward to the next year," Gonzales concluded.

Disabled workers almost always apply for social security benefits. However, in a few cases, the worker dies before applying.

Henry Duron is A F cadet at SWTSU

SAN MARCOS -- A student from LaCoste is among the 110 cadets in the 840th Air Force ROTC Detachment at Southwest Texas State University.

The local AFROTC cadet is Henry S. Duron, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcos S. Duron of Box 305, LaCoste.

Cadet Duron is a junior Biology major at Southwest Texas State.

The Air Force ROTC program offers qualified students an opportunity to prepare for a career in the U.S. Air Force while completing academic studies in the field of their choice. The AFROTC scholarship program provides students with financial support that is often badly needed to complete their academic careers.

Upon their successful completion of their degree requirements and the AFROTC program, cadets are commissioned as second lieutenants in the U.S. Air Force.

THROUGH THE WALL

... paneling sheet which covered a window in Hondo H&R Block office was pushed in to give burglars entry. Though only one typewriter was reported missing, room was left in disarray.

Police probe two burglaries

Hondo Police are working to solve two apparently unrelated burglaries of a Hondo business and a church on Sunday and Monday mornings. Sunday morning at about 11 a.m., burglars struck the rectory of St. John's Catholic Church. Several items along with some cash, were taken. The cash totaled $103, plus another $35 designated for distribution to the poor. Also stolen were two pistols, twenty cassette tapes, and a leather briefcase. The thieves apparently entered through an unlocked door.

Monday morning before dawn, the Hondo office of H9R Block Company, 1607 Ave. K was struck by burglars. In addition to ransacking the office, the burglars also stole a typewriter. No money was kept in the office.

Entry was made through a window that had been walled up. No arrests have been made, but investigation continues.

FFA NEWS

The Hondo FFA Chapter held a regular meeting Monday night in Vo-Ag classroom. Fourteen FFA members were raised from Greenhand Degree to that of Chapter Farmer. Requirements for qualifying for the Chapter Farmer Degree are: 1) member must be enrolled in Vocational Agriculture for at least one year prior to receiving the Chapter Farmer Degree. 2) He must have earned from his productive projects or the agricultural occupation training at last $50.00 and have this money either invested or deposited in the bank. 3) He must be familiar with the proper use of parliamentary procedure. 4) He must be capable of leading a group discussion for 15 minutes. 5) He must be enrolled in the second year class of vocational agriculture.

Members raised to the degree of Chapter Farmer were: Richard Fournier, Andy Gilliam, Bruce D. Martin, Jack Martin, Allen Reed, Tommy Schueling, Allan Muen-nink, Bobby Cox, Forrest Horecka, Duane McCart-ney, Lee Haile, Garland Nietenhoefer, George Ael-voet and Grabe Lopez. Jerry Dornak, student teacher from Texas A&M University, gave the chapter members a talk on college life. He answered a number of questions about the ROTC program at Texas A&M; about the Aggie Band; and about college life in general. Mr. McAnelly stated that he had advised a number of former FFA boys to take ROTC while in college since upon graduation the boys will hold a college degree as well as a commission in the Army or Air Corp. This gives a person two ways to go in their adult life after completing college.

MR. McAnelly urged the Leadership teams that were going to San Marcos on Tuesday to work as a team and bring back some banners... or even better still, would be a Plaque for first place... this would mean going to State Leadership Contest at Huntsville... Saturday Nov. 17th.

The last Hondo FFA team in Leadership to qualify for State Leadership was the freshman FFA Quiz team in 1966. members of this team are now juniors or seniors in college.

The Hondo FFA Chapter barely missed winning the Sweepstakes Award at the recent Revaldina District FFA Leadership Contest. It had won the award for the past two years.

The contest was held Wednesday afternoon, November 7, at Hondo High School with teams competing in six various contests. Medina Valley chapter won the Sweepstakes Award by taking three first places, two second places, and a seventh place, accumulating 23.8 points.

Hondo was close behind with 23.0 points, winning first places in both Greenhand and chapter Farmer Chapter Conducting contests. Hondo scored a second place in Chapter Farmer Farm Skills, and scored three third places in Greenhand Quiz and Farm Skills and Chapter Farmer Radio Broadcasting.

Overall placings in the Greenhand Division were as follows:

FFA Quiz -- 1) Medina Valley, 2) Nueces Canyon, 3) Hondo, 4) Devine, 5) D'Hanis, 6) Utopia, 7) Natalia.

Chapter Conducting -- 1) Hondo, 2) Medina Valley, 3) Natalia, 4) Devine, 5) Uvalde, 6) Leakey.

Farm Skills -- 1) Medina Valley, 2) Uvalde, 3) Hondo.

Chapter Farmer Division placings in the contest were as follows:

Radio Broadcasting -- 1) Knippa, 2) Medina Valley, 3) Hondo, 4) Uvalde, 5) Devine, 6) Utopia.

Chapter Conducting -- 1) Hondo, 2) Brackettville, 3) Natalia, 4) Devine, 5) D'Hanis, 6) Uvalde, 7) Medina Valley. Farm Skills -- 1) Medina Valley, 2) Hondo, 3) Uvalde.

Award plaques for the top three teams in each contest will be presented by the Central Power and Light Co.

First and second place teams from each contest were eligible to compete in the Area FFA Leadership Contest in San Marcos on Tuesday, November 13. Hondo sent three teams. Both chapter conducting teams, which involves working parliamentary procedure problems, and the Chapter Farmer Farm Skills team, which demonstrated the correct procedure in set-up and use of the oxy-acetylene rig, went.

To be eligible to go to the State Contest, November 17th the team must win a first place in the Area Contest, competing against 11 other teams representing the six districts in Area VII. State competition will see one team from each of the 10 areas competing for the state championship.

Hondo teams are coached by the Vocational Agriculture instructors J. D. Schmidt and John E. McAnelly and student Vo-Ag teacher Jerry Dornak.

D'Hanis heads for district showdown

The Rocksprings Angoras heaped a 38-6 defeat on the Medina Bobcats to set up the climactic game tomorrow night between Rocksprings and D'Hanis. That game will be for the District 14-B championship.

In the three-member district's opener last week, D'Hanis walloped Medina 54-0. They now stand at 8-1 for the season.

Rocksprings has only one more season loss at 7-2, and of course they are tied with D'Hanis in district record.

D'Hanis won last year's Rocksprings game, which also decided the district championship.

The Angoras have had a strong team all season with fine performers such as Rudy Galindo, Cody Dutton and Rene Ramirez.

D'Hanis has gotten top performances from their limited personnel, with Senior quarterback Bobby Joe Rothe heading up a potent offense. Though the starting offensive unit usually features Bobby Joe, Ricky Rothe, Richard Rothe, and Ronny Rothe, some sterling performances have been turned in by Jerry Lopez and Ronny Koch. Doug Kempf is a big, strong tight end, while Daniel Rodriguez serves well as split end.

A stingy defensive unit is headed by Lee Roy Reyes and Joseph Nester, with other good players in Frank Sandoval, Ronny Koch, Albert and Daniel Rodriguez, and Doug Kempf.

The Cowboys, thanks to their rout of Medina, advanced two slots in the Associated Press football ratings.

Listed in seventh place among Texas Class B schools last week, the Cowboys are now number five.

Of course, ratings mean nothing to Rocksprings, who would just as soon defeat number five as number twenty-five to win district. The Cowboys will be in for their game of the season Friday night. Game time is 8 p.m. in Rocksprings.

Playoff site still unknown

A delegation from Hondo High School, including Superintendent Kenneth Flory, Principal Bob Nations, and Coach James Bohls will meet Saturday morning with representatives of the winning school of District 27-AA, to decide on location, date, and price of tickets for the bi-district football game.

As of today, they still do not know just whom they will be meeting, and the substance of their discussions depends heavily on just which team—Randolph or Cole—the Owls will have to play.

If Randolph plays in district, the bi-district game will automatically be played at Randolph. This is in accordance with Interscholastic League Rule 22 which dates back to 1935. It says that if two teams have met on a home field within the last six years, the visiting team of the last contest may insist on being the home team in the next regional or state playoff between the two clubs.

Since Hondo and Randolph last played in 1969, and since that game was held here in Hondo, it appears that Randolph has the right to insist that this game be played on their field. They will in all likelihood so insist.

But, if Cole wins, things get a little more confusing.

Hondo and Cole could either agree on a neutral site, or else they could flip for home-and-home. Flipping would be fine, except that Cole's football field is a small one. Its capacity is around 1,800 persons—too small for Hondo's crowd, much less a large home crowd.

That fact will cause the Hondo delegation to look long and hard at the list of available neutral sites. Dates on which these neutral fields are available will also have a bearing on where the Owls would like the game to be played.

The opponent which the Owls meet will also bear on how soon tickets will be available here in Hondo.

Should the opponent be Randolph, tickets might be on sale as early as Monday morning at 8 a.m.

If Cole is the opponent, tickets may not be available until Tuesday.

That would cut down the time of ticket sales to two days—Tuesday and Wednesday—during regular office hours at the Administration office. The office will be closed Friday, November 23, for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Former Medina Countain to write sports column

L. D. Nuckles

A new sports column, which will be run as regularly as space permits, will re-introduce a former Medina County resident to Anvil Herald readers.

L. D. Nuckles, information and education officer for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, will be featured in a column titled "Outdoors 'N Things'."

Nuckles was born and raised in Sabinal where he attended public schools.

He went off to war during World War II and served in both the European and Pacific Theaters. He retired from the U.S. Army Reserve in 1969 as Lt. Col. with 33 years of service.

Nuckles attended the first Game Warden's School at A&M University in 1946, and following that he spent 16 years in law enforcement at Medina Lake. Afterwards he changed to information and education and moved from Castroville to Rockport in 1962.

His wife of 33 years, Georgie, is a Texas girl. Their one child, 1st Lt. C. Gregory Nuckles (who grew up and went to school in Castroville) was killed in action while leading a platoon near Dak To, South Vietnam in 1967.

The former Medina Countain manages to keep himself busy doing these things: write for newspapers, Parks and Wildlife magazine, and sometimes for other publications; speak to school, church, civic, sportsmen groups and other organizations on wildlife conservation, outdoor recreation, water and gun safety; write and record regular tri-weekly radio programs for eight South Texas radio stations; appear on live radio and TV when asked to do so; assist in in-service training of other departmental personnel; assist in production of movies for the Department and do still photography for Department magazine, historical records.

What does he do in his spare time. Well, he says, "Five grandchildren live just down the street and what little time is left over from them -- I fish, especially offshore, and oil paint."

GO OWLS—
BEAT DILLEY

Owls play Dilley 'for pride'

The Dilley Wolves will be prowling Friday night at Barry Field. Stung by an untimely defeat at the hands of the Angry Orange of Medina Valley and suddenly out of the District Championship race, they will be bent on handing the Owls their first defeat in five games.

And the Owls are in a tough spot, too. For they must play for pride Friday night. Everyone knows that, win or lose, Hondo will represent the district in playoffs next week.

But tomorrow they must go against a strong and angry Dilley team to preserve their record and their undisputed possession of the title.

Devine will be playing Pearsall, and if they should win and Hondo lose, the Owls must share their district title with the Warhorses.

Dilley features a flashy Houston Veer offense, a version of the triple option series, handled by quarterback Willie Esqueda, a 165-pound Senior.

At halfback is Gib Wharton, 165, another Senior who is a quick running back, well adapted to taking the option pitch. Wharton is also something of a catch-up man for Dilley. A good passer, he has been moved to quarterback in games where Dilley needs quick points. He is obviously a threat with the halfback option pass, too.

Rounding out the Wolves' offense are running backs Nandy Rodriguez, 145, a Junior, and Ruben Rodriguez, another Junior at 160 pounds.

The Dilley offensive line, which lacks nothing for size, is anchored by center Noe Garcia, 175, a Senior. At guards are Raul Lozano, 183, and Mike Kiefer, 168, both Juniors. At tackles are Kelly Shull, 198, and Sam Brown, 207, a Junior and Senior respectively.

Ends are Mark Mattingly, a huge 213 pound tight end and split end Manuel Berrera, 147.

On the defensive, Dilley presents a variety of looks, shifting from play to play. Their setup varies from a 4-3 to a 5-2 or 5-3 depending on the situation.

Guards are Raul Lozano and Efrain Santos, 207 pound Sophomore. At ends are Kelly Shull and Mark Mattingly. Linebackers include Alfredo Trevino, 160-pound Senior, Willie Esqueda and Ruben Rodriguez.

Cornerback is Gib Wharton. At halfbacks are Yancey Moore, 150, and Pedro Berrera, 145. At Safety is Nandy Rodriguez.

Hondo will have some trouble fielding a split end against Dilley.

"Both Ray Garcia and Paul Pope were hurt Friday night," reports Coach Bohls.

"Ray received a hip bruise, and Paul reinjured a hip from an earlier injury."

"We're going to try Mike Groff in the work-outs, just in case Ray or Paul can't play Friday night."

Groff, a quarterback, has never played at split end, but Tuesday and Wednesday he worked out at that position.

Manage deer like livestock

By Jerry Turrentine
Biologist, SCS

Deer hunting provides recreation for more hunters each year. This recreation source can furnish landowners with a just return for the animals raised on their property.

Food, in sufficient amounts and of adequate quality, is as important in maintaining a healthy deer herd as it is for livestock production. When a rancher considers the number of livestock to place in a given pasture, he should first determine the approximate number of deer in that pasture.

Every pasture has a certain carrying capacity (the ability to support a certain number of animals) for deer and domestic livestock.

At current pasture lease prices, it costs the rancher $10 to 15 annually for each deer on the ranch, considering that food eaten by deer could be used by livestock.

Six deer can consume as much forage as five sheep, six goats or one cow.

Sheep and goats are serious competitors of deer even on good ranges because they are very similar in their food preferences and requirements.

The more sheep and goats there are in a pasture the less deer food there will be.

Food competition between cattle and deer on good ranges is slight. A system where livestock are grazed in fewer pastures and rotated between several pastures can greatly improve the range for both livestock and game.

Not everything growing in a pasture is deer food.

In fact, only a small portion of the total vegetation may be deer food; and a large portion may be out of reach.

Livestock can compete with deer for food, but a deer's worst competitor is another deer. When deer population is not controlled, they can literally eat themselves out of house and home.

Mother Nature will then reap the excess through a long painful death from starvation or disease.

Healthy deer have a high reproductive rate with an average annual increase of 15 to 40 percent.

The average annual deer harvest is about 10 percent.

What happens to the other deer?

They die from other causes. As hunting pressure is increased, fewer deer die from natural causes because those remaining have more food and increased chances of survival.

We are harvesting only a small part of our deer potential. The increased hunting pressure needs to be placed on the doe segment of the herd. For each buck harvested at least one doe should also be taken. If this were done over a period of years, the sex ratio between bucks and does would improve and help prevent overpopulation from occurring.

Research has shown that by adequately harvesting surplus deer of both sexes the buck harvest can be increased. Occuring with this increased buck harvest the body size and antler size also increased. Removal of surpluses of both sexes will tend toward a 50-50 balance because the fawn crop adds to the herd in a 50-50 ratio. Would a hunter or rancher like to go out in a pasture and see 10 does and 1 buck? Would they rather see about half bucks and half does? The choice is theirs to make.

For more information on how to improve pastures for game and livestock, contact your local Soil Conservation Service Field Office.

Owls are district champs—beat Mavericks 30-6

The Hondo Owls, with a little help from Medina Valley's Panthers, wrapped up the District Crown Friday night with a 30-6 win over Pearsall.

Hondo now stands 5-0 in district play, and Pearsall dropped to 3-2.

Tomorrow night, the district contender whose ideas were changed by Medina Valley, the Dilley Wolves, will come to Hondo for the season finale for both clubs.

The Owls found themselves stymied by the Pearsall Mavericks throughout the first quarter Friday night, but the Owl defense also held strong, and neither side was able to score before quarter's end.

But in the second quarter, it took less than two minutes for Hondo to get on the boards.

Paul Pope recovered a Maverick fumble at Pearsall's own 24 yard line. From there quarterback Brian Finger fired a strike to Gordon Bohmfalk down to the 9-yard line. After the Mavs held on the first try, Gene McAnelly blasted all the way into the end zone for 9 yards and the first Hondo score.

Finger kicked the first conversion kick of the night, and the Owls led 7-0 with 10:15 left in the half.

Late in the quarter, it was a Maverick fumble again, this time recovered by Charlie Britsch, which gave Hondo possession at Pearsall's 13 yard line.

In three plays, Hondo could reach only to the 7-yard line, so Brian Finger toed a 25-yard field goal—the first attempt by the Owls all season—to up the score to 10-0 with 1:55 remaining.

Late in the third quarter, the Owls mounted a steady 45-yard drive to a touchdown. Taking a Maverick punt at Pearsall's 45-yard line, the Owls fumbled back to the 48 before recovering. But Paul Pope salvaged the young drive with a diving catch of Finger's pass, good for 15 yards to the 30.

Tony Hackbeil drove for 25 more yards on a draw play, setting the stage for Finger's 4-yard scramble across the goal line for the second TD. The kick was good, and Hondo led 17-0 with 3:27 to go in the third period.

The Owls were rewarded again shortly with another Pearsall turnover, this time a Paul Pope interception of a pass by Pat McGehee at Pearsall's 31-yard line.

Hackbeil again provided a long gainer, breaking two tackles for 21 yards. Three plays later, Finger hit Doug Helvey for 16 more yards and the touchdown.

Finger's kick was no good, but Hondo held a convincing 23-0 lead late in the third quarter.

But Pearsall finally got a break in the opening seconds of the fourth quarter. Taking an Owl punt at their own 23-yard line, the Mavs under new quarterback Gene Reed moved to near midfield.

With first and ten from the Pearsall 49, Reed threw long for Tibby Carroll, who was heading for the goal line. Ray Garcia tried for the interception but missed, and Carroll finished his 51-yard run unmolested. A two-point conversion try was stopped by the Owls, and the lead was reduced to 23-6 with 11:26 left in the game.

But fate and the Owls stepped in again. Reed fell victim to McGehee's problems as Safety Brian Finger intercepted one of his passes at the Maverick 33.

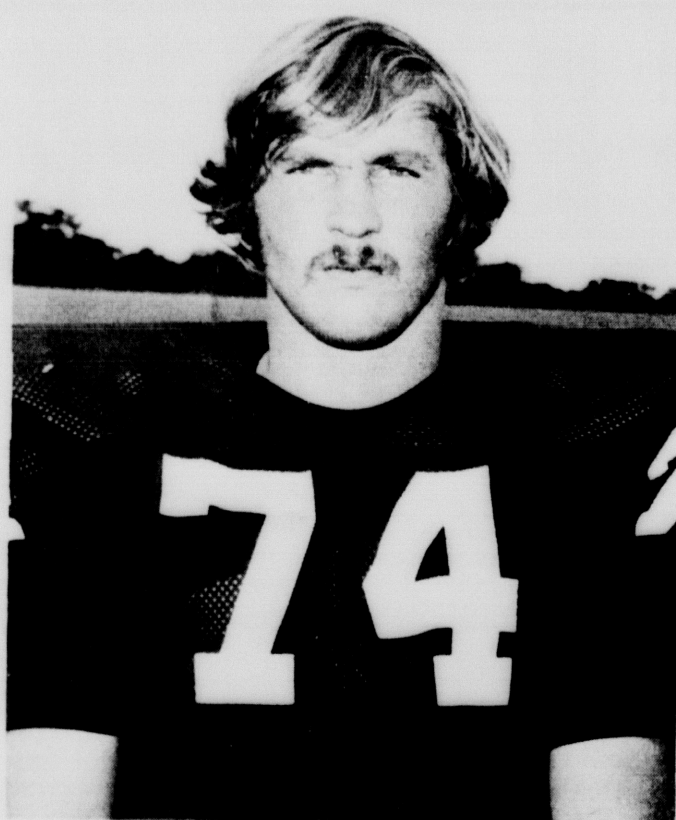

This time it took five plays as Gene McAnelly ran for 15 yards in three carries, the final five for the touchdown. Again, Finger split the uprights, and it was 30-6 midway through the quarter.

Even with heavy use of reserves, the Owls, who by now had heard of Medina Valley's upset over Dilley, played inspired football to stifle yet another Pearsall drive. The Owls punted out to their own 43, where Pearsall began another aerial barrage. Reed completed two consecutive passes to gain a first down at Hondo's 23 yard line. A third pass netted nine more yards, to the Hondo 14.

But the next two throws went incomplete and a fourth down run by Dallas Collins was thwarted for a one-yard loss by Jimmy Jordan. By then, only 27 seconds remained in the game, and the Owls had no trouble running out the clock.

Statistics for the game were as follow (Hondo first):

First Downs, 21-6; Rushing yards, 207-42; Passing yards, 117-108; Total yards, 324-150; Passes, 6-18-0, 5-13-2; Fumbles lost 1-2; Punts, 6 for 31 yards average, 6 for 38; Return yards, 25-55; Penalties, 2-10, 6-50.

BOBCAT REGULAR -- Morris Faseler, former Hondo grid star, will be at defensive tackle for Southwest Texas State University Saturday night when the Bobcats close out their season against Texas A&I in Kingsville. Faseler, a junior, has earned two letters already for the Bobcats. Kickoff Saturday will be at 7:30.

How they fared

Hondo will represent District 28-AA in post-season playoffs this season, regardless of the outcome of tomorrow's game with Dilley.

The Medina Valley Panthers made it a lot easier for Hondo as they downed contender Dilley last week 14-6 to take the pressure off the Owls.

A victory over Dilley this week will give Hondo undisputed possession of the title. A loss by Devine, to Pearsall, regardless of whether Hondo wins or loses, will also give Hondo the crown.

But should Dilley win and Devine win, the title will still go to Hondo since the Owls defeated the Warhorses in district play.

The Warhorses had a good game last Friday against Carrizo Springs. They finally put their offense together for their best showing of the year, a 51-0 rout of the Wildcats. That total more than doubled their previous season high score, a 21-0 shutout of Southwest early in the year. Devine now stands at 8-1 for the season, 4-1 in district competition.

Medina Valley surprised everyone by spoiling Dilley's playoff bid on the Wolves' home field with a 14-6 upset. The Panthers recovered a Dilley fumble and drive to a slim 7-6 halftime lead. But the Orangemen widened the gap in the third quarter as David DeCock ran in form 25 yards out, then kicked the point after. Dilley was unable to move against the Panther defense in the second half and it was all over for the Wolves. That win was only the fourth season victory for Medina Valley against five losses, but it boosted their district mark to 2-3. Dilley fell to a 6-3 season record and a 3-2 loop tally.

Pearsall, of course was dropped to an identical 3-2 mark by the Owls in Friday night's 30-6 win by Hondo over the Mavericks.

Game Dinner plans all on 'go'

Almost everything is in readiness for the annual Wild Game Dinner slated November 24 as an appreciation event from the Hondo Chamber of Commerce to the land-owners and hunters.

"It seems right now that all lights are green," general chairman Bruce Foster said this week. "Event chairmen have accepted their tasks with much enthusiasm and have named their committees."

"However, we are still in need of much meat for the big event which fed almost 800 last year. So anyone who has any kind of meat in their freezer, we have a good use for it. We do have various kinds of meat including some bear meat, thanks to Dr. E. L. Kelley."

A listing of the workers for the 1973 Wild Game Dinner include Foster as general chairman, Harry Filleman as co-chairman and:

Wood Hauling--Fred Graff; Slaw--Rene Aelvoet; Chili--Alvin Britsch; Beans--George L. Brucks; Fish and Rattlesnake Cooking--Lester Boehme.

Meat Cooking--Robert Zuberbueler, Bobby Zuberbueler, C. J. Mangold, John Schueling, Roy Long, George D. Koch, George A. Koch; Meat Cutting--David McGraw, Hilmer Lutz, Lupe Alvarez, Fred Bader, Fred Johnson, Fabian Gonzales, Tony Alvarez, Frank Alvarez.

Beer Selling--Henry Nietenhoefer, George Schmidt, John Muennink, Henry Schulte, Clyde Johnson, Jess Ledbetter, Bob Van De Walle; Beer Tickets--Kenneth Flory, Henry M. Finger, Tom Hollmig, Albert Vance.

Hot Potatoes--Edgar Stiegler, Henry Stiegler, Ralph Stiegler; Bread--Tex Kriewald; Beer Coolers, Plates, PicNik Paces--Henry Nietenhoefer; Pearl Sound Truck--L Y N N Boehme.

Serving Committee--Bud Woods, Milton Renken, Julius Aelvoet, Ralph Gilliam, Hilmer Mueller, Chuck Hackbeil, Leroy Miller; Ice Tea--Leroy Miller.

MEAT ACCUMULATION--Venison, Jim Jordan and Marcellus Garrison; Fish, Tom Tompkins, Rattlesnake, Larry Winkler; Armadillo, Reno Stanga; Javelina, Tommy Timmerman; Wild Sheep, Russell Chapman; Wild Goats, Bob McGarity; Moose, John Jennings; Rabbit, George D. Koch; Storage, Larry Oefinger.

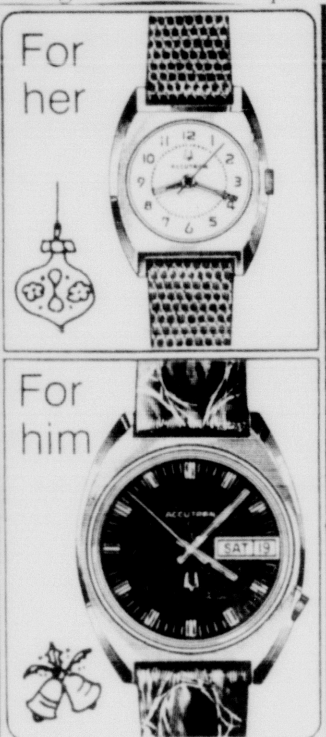

The law does not affect neighboring counties, only Medina County. It has the approval of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, and will be enforced along with other Texas game laws.

Only ten counties in Texas feature this law -- others are Brazos, Grimes, Houston, Jasper, Newton, Polk, Robertson, Trinity, and Tyler Counties -- and in these counties, a buck deer is defined as "a deer with a pronged or forked antler."

Each hunter is allowed three deer, no more than two of which can be bucks. An antlerless deer, in Medina County as well as elsewhere, is defined as "a deer with no hardened antler protruding through the skin."

Other cautions to hunters in Medina County are also in order. It is illegal to:

- Hunt deer, elk, or antelope with a .22 caliber rimfire, jet gun, or rocket gun.
- Hunt from or on a public road or right of way.
- Trespass to hunt, fish, or deplete consent of owner or agent.
- Refuse a game warden to search your automobile or game bag.
- Have in possession a deer not tagged with tag from your hunting license, properly filled out front and back.
- Take elk without a permit.
- Hunt or fish under the license of another.
- Hunt or shoot turkeys from the roost.

Woman to husband as she arrives in auto with smashed front: "And the policeman was so nice about it. He asked if I'd like for the city to remove all the telephone poles!"

The possibility of having a woman for president is really no problem. What's worrisome is the thought of having a man for First Lady.

If more husbands were self-starters, fewer wives would have to be cranks.

Farm Bureau tour makes exciting trip for one member from county

By Mrs. Lorene Tschirhart

On September 5, I joined a group of Texas Farm Bureau members at Love Field, Dallas. We would make the annual fall market study tour.

This time it would be Europe -- France, Switzerland, Germany, Belgium, Holland and England.

There was quite a bit of air turbulence. Just when one thought one might catch a few winks of sleep, it was "fasten seat belts." Being foolish enough to drive without one, I am always unbuckled.

Because of our late arrival in Paris, we had to skip a few places of interest. Lost time is something that most always stays lost. However we did get a fine tour of the city, and that nite had as our guest for dinner, their Agriculture Attache.

France

Paris is a beautiful city with many statues, boulevards and trees. The guide told us 87,000 trees had been planted. We saw many hugh vacant apartment houses, and were told rent was so high, people could not afford to live in them. This we could believe, as one of our ladies was charged $18.00 (U.S.) to have her hair washed and set and someone else paid $10.00 (U.S.) for three bottles of beer, if you can imagine that!

We visited a 1,000 acre farm. About 600 acres are in cultivation and raise wheat, corn and oats.

They raise Hampshur sheep. These have black feet and black up their faces. A rather large breed.

They also raise Charolais cattle. The owner showed us a five year old bull which he said weighed one ton. The use one bull to twenty cows.

He also showed us two beautiful Clydesdale horses and said they were used for farm work. We saw some nice modern equipment, too.

France is one of the top ten in wheat growing, though not of high quality, and also grows lots of corn. However, they say it is used only to feed animals. They grow seed grain similar to our maize or hegari. One sees fields of every kind of vegetable one can imagine, especially cabbage and turnips. We saw a lot of pear trees loaded with fruit. We never had any fresh or canned fruit to eat. We just had orange juice to drink which came from Italy. They irrigate mostly from rivers in France.

Vineyards and wineries are in various regions. France is second largest wine producer in the world and ranks second to the United States in cheese.

France is a highly industrialized nation. Iron and steel industries and several textile centers making silk, cotton, linen and woolen goods. A perfume and cosmetic industry and the worlds famous fashion houses are located here.

Switzerland This postage stamp sized country is the worlds oldest democracy. It lies almost at Europe's center, surrounded by five countries, France, Germany, Austria, Liechtenstein and Italy. It has an average rainfall of 45 inches.

Because of the hilly terrain, there is little agriculture, about 20 percent. However, these same hills are ideal for dairy farming and herding. One sees small neat farms and brown Swiss cattle everywhere one looks. Every available inch is farmed or in a garden in someone's yard. The houses have red tiled roofs and most have house on one end and barn on the other. (We went in three of these) or barn on the ground level, and living quarters upstairs. Farms average from one acre to fifteen or 20 acres.

We visited a farm of thirty-five acres, which was considered a large farm. This was owned by an electrical company.

They had a herd of thirty Brown Swiss cows. One cow eighteen years old still gives five gallons a day, but most cows age is six years.

They also showed us some large white sows, but I didn't hear the name of the breed.

They raise hay for their own use, just by cutting the grass as it is good for grazing, or cutting and stays green year-round.

Switzerland is famous for it's dairy products, Swiss music boxes and watches, machine tools, and Diesel engines. The little country is highly industrialized. A large banking industry and tourist trade.

Germany

Our tour was in West Germany and except for a change of flags, the countryside looked much like Switzerland. There were many beautifully green, small, neat farms and red tiled houses with a shed out back for hay, or a house and barn combined, and bright red geraniums everywhere. Some of the barns had planter boxes out from the hay loft, all the houses along the road, and office buildings in the cities of both Germany and Switzerland, had these planter boxes or pots.

We visited two farms at Oberammergau. One farm had thirty acres and twenty cows. The husband worked elsewhere, so the wife showed us around. The other farm, of about fifty acres, was considered large. It is about 300 years old. Property always goes to the oldest child, or oldest son if there is one. I wanted to ask her what happened to the other poor kids.

Germany, too, has Brown Swiss cattle. The area around Garmish, where we spent two nites, is ideal for cattle raising. It is too cool for vegetables except for home gardening.

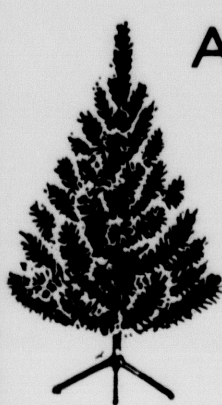

Germany is very highly industrialized, and seems to have regained their lost ground. The country is rich in coal, potash and salt. There are huge iron and steel works and textile mills humming at full force. They make precision instruments of all kinds, more about... Farm Bureau Tour cameras, clocks and watches. There is also sugar beer and wine making. There are large shipyards in their North Sea ports busy at shipbuilding.

We had a 2½ hour boat ride on the Rhine river and saw many beautiful old castles and ruins of a bygone era. I believe this to be the tour's best.

Belgium

This is one of the most densely populated countries in the world.

Throughout history, Belgium seems to have been a battlefield. It has been destroyed twice and rebuilt twice in this century. And most of the countries of Europe have tried to latch on to it at one time or other in the past centuries.

Again we see farming on every available inch. Two-thirds of Belgium is in farming and one-third used for cities and roads. Main crops grown are wheat, oats, rye, barley and flax. Vegetable gardens are seen everywhere. Farms average five acres in size. Highly efficient use of fertilizer accounts for one of the highest crop yields per acre. Cattle are also grown in upland areas.

Belgium has heavy industry because of its rich deposits of iron ore and coal. There are large iron and steel works and zinc smelters. They have a well developed glass industry and textile centers are important in the making of linen and fine lace.

We spent one nite in Brussels and had as our guest for dinner our American Common Market official. He has been with the Common Market nine years. Needless to say, the Common Market and all the problems the U. S. may have with it was discussed.

Holland

The country is thirty-seven feet above seal level, one hundred miles wide and has more than four thousand miles of navigable canals and rivers. Ditches of water run beside the road, and high squatty windmills dot the scene. Some of them are still in use. People live in the bottom of the mill. This is why the base is so large. The countryside is also very green.

About fifty percent of the Dutch territory is in pastures, orchards and gardens. Flower bulbs represent six percent of the national income.

There are small farms and gardens everywhere. The moist, grassy lowlands are ideal for cattle raising. The Dutch produce a lot of butter and cheese. They also raise poultry and hogs.

Largest industries are those of processed foods, condensed milk, beet sugar, chocolate and cheeses.

There are oil refineries, chemical plants and shipbuilding. Also textiles, glass, cement and rubber goods.

Amsterdam is the diamond cutting center of the world and we had a guided tour through a workshop. We also took a 1½ hour boat ride through the canals. We enjoyed it very much.

We had dinner at the famous "Five Flies". This building is about 250 years old and seemed to be built like a ship inside.

England

Our tour took us to Windsor Castle and the castle of King Henry VIII. We saw some beautiful formal gardens with many different colored flowers. By this time it was raining again, so we drove through the English countryside. We saw a few cattle, but the guide told us this was not a cattle raising area.

Much of the soil in England is used for farming but the country cannot produce enough food for its large population. It is very densely populated. They raise wheat, oats, rye, hops, vegetables of all kinds.

fruits and sugar beets. This area is in the Midlands. Sheep, cattle and hops are raised in the western region.

England's most important resources are coal and iron ore and this has helped make England a great manufacturing center. They turn out a lot of heavy equipment. There are large textile centers which make excellent cotton and woolen goods and synthetic fibers. We saw the Changing of the Guard at Buckingham Palace and the Tower of London.
